Last Monday evening the Unity class of the Cong'l. church was entertained by Misses Althea Reynolds and Gertrude Brigham at the home of the former on Pleasant street. During the evening the class president, Miss Marie Gulick, presented a linen table cloth and napkins to Mrs. R. W. Eaton, who recently lost all her household linen in the burning of her home. The evening was pleasantly passed with music, conversation and singing. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.

P. A. Senior Play

The Senior Class of Peoples Academy will present the play "Triss, or Beyond the Rockies" in the town hall, Tuesday and Friday evenings, March 27 and 28, under the direction of Mrs. Ila Niles Jackson. Triss is a pathetic western drama, full of exciting scenes, and it is sure to please the people. On Thursday noon the academy students will give a parade in which over one hundred students will take part. Much work and planning has been done to make Thursday one of the liveliest days Morrisville has ever seen. A special invitation is extended to the out of town people to come to Morrisville on Thursday and stay to attend the play. Watch for pictures of play in store windows next Saturday afternoon.

Some Wrestling

There was a large crowd at the Gym last evening to witness the wrestling match between Young Gotch of Claremont, N. H., and Young Pera of Hardwick, the latter winning the match in two straight falls, the first in one and a half minutes and the second and championship in nine and a quarter minutes. The preliminary match between Sharky and Pope of Hardwick was won by the latter in two straight falls, the first in 16 and the second in 6 1-4 minutes. Chas. Bixby acted as referee.

Woman's Club

The Woman's Club is invited to meet with Mrs. H. A. Slayton Monday evening March 17. As this is the evening of St. Patrick's Day the ladies are requested to appear in costume or wearing some insignia appropriate to the date. However, Mrs. Slayton does not wish anyone to stay away for lack of St. Patrick's favorite color. Dress in costume if you can do so; but if you cannot adopt the touches of green, attend just the same. At that time the members are to take the money they have earned towards the Opera House fund and be prepared to tell the story of its accumulation. It is desired that the story be written in rhyme but whether in rhyme or in prose it is requested that as much fun and wit as possible be woven into it.

Judge Walker of Cambridge was in town to-day.

Mrs. Susan Burke is seriously ill from pneumonia and complications, following an attack of the measles. A trained nurse from Burlington came Saturday evening to care for her.

Rathbone Lodge, K. of P. held its first meeting in its new hall, in the Avalon Block, last Thursday evening. There was a good attendance with much interest manifested. The lodge room is a fine one.

On Friday evening last relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith to the number of about thirty gathered at their home to remind them of their 10th wedding anniversary, the affair being a complete surprise to the host and hostess. The evening was very pleasantly spent, refreshments of cake and coffee being served. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were the recipients of several nice presents and a purse of money, A. E. Wheeler presenting the same in behalf of the guests.

HYDE PARK

Miss Hallie Gates is taking a short vacation from duties at Page's office.

L. C. Udall of Wolcott and R. R. Udall of Craftsbury were in town yesterday.

Miss Sally Child of Waterville visited relatives at "The Elms" several days recently.

B. C. Douglass returned from Waterbury Monday and has resumed work in the McFarland office.

Ed Richardson has gathered up his household effects from various parts of the village and moved the same to Cady's Falls. What's up, Ed?

Miss Rose Rooney, Miss Norma Strong, Miss Marjorie Hubbard and Fred Noble are among those who are now out after a great tussel with measles.

Henry Morey and Miss Ruby Horner, both of this village, were married at Morrisville last Sunday by Rev. G. W. Tabor. Henry has "paid the cigars" and the happy couple have the best wishes of many friends.

A flock of "Evening Grosbeaks," an almost unknown bird in this state, were seen in this village several times last week. They are a most beautiful bird and attract attention of even those who are not "ornithologically" inclined.

The Pauly Jail Co. of New York are putting in additional cells in the county jail, on the upper floor. They will include a female ward and a hospital room. Ralph Kirk of Owego, N.Y., with an able corps of assistants, is doing the work, which is similar to that on the lower floor.

It Was "Gentlemen's Night"

Tuesday night was Gentlemen's Night with the Home Culture Club and a fine event it was; in fact the ladies of the club once a year invite the men folk to an evening of their doings and the masculine element always look forward to this interesting and pleasant occasion.

The event this year was held at the Inn and a splendid place it was for it. Ample room in the ball room for the various exercises, with the dining-room commodious for the serving of the banquet.

The color scheme was green and white and the decorations were very tasty.

The guests were received in regulation form on arriving and paid their respects to the "ladies in waiting," who on this occasion were the resident, Miss DeNio, the Vice-President, Mrs. Lillian Leach, and the Secretary, Mrs. Isadore Thorp.

After this there was a social hour of an informal character, during which the Hyde Park Orchestra of seven pieces rendered several choice selections. Then came a guessing contest, with impromptu musical selections rendered by several, which created much amusement, after which Miss DeNio and Prof. Crosby rendered a pleasing vocal duet, to which they responded to a hearty encore; a couple of recitations were given by Rev. Trill, followed by a solo by Mrs. Trill, with a nice response.

The banquet followed and seventy partook of the same, which was a splendid course affair, nicely supervised by Mine Host Savery, and finely served by an able corps of assistants. Following the feast there was a humorous trio, "Three Old Maids," by Mrs. Stella Goddard, Mrs. Trill and Miss DeNio, which was repeated in response to the applause.

Perhaps "the event of the evening" was the farce, a very humorous one, in which Mrs. Nora Wood, Mrs. Stella Goddard and Rev. Mr. Trill were the participants. It was "Automatic Ann," and was rendered to perfection, and received by the audience with rounds of laughter.

"Home, Sweet Home," with dancing, completed the evening's entertainment and all were of the opinion that, while other like events had been interesting, this was "the best ever." Surely the ladies gave the gentlemen a fine entertainment—one which will long be remembered by all.

Mine Host Savery and his estimable wife were untiring in their efforts to aid in making the affair the success it was.

To be sure the Hyde Park Inn Quartet was there, on this occasion greatly augmented by several additional voices and they received rounds of applause.

Kirk Ellsworth of Cambridge, Miss Louise Leland of Johnson, Prof. Burnham of Johnson, Mrs. Wilma Hanley and Mrs. H. R. Hall of Essex Junction, were among those from out-of-town in attendance.

To Cigarette Dealers

Your attention is called to No. 235 of the Acts of the Legislature of 1912-13, which prohibits the selling, furnishing, or giving away of cigarettes, cigarette papers or wrappers to a person under twenty-one years of age, under the penalty of a fine of not more than fifty dollars, or imprisonment of not more than two months, or both.

The act further provides that you shall post in your stores a copy of this act, and shall be liable to a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars, nor less than five dollars for not so posting. Copies necessary for posting can be obtained by writing Hon. Gay W. Bailey, Secretary of State, Essex Jct., Vt., which should be done at once. M. P. Maurice, State's Atty.
